Building Connections

People enjoy feeling connected to their loved ones, to their friends and neighbors, and to where they live. Museums save the community by providing a place where those connections can flourish, where families spend quality time together, where volunteers work together, and where strangers become neighbors. The Los Altos History Museum works to help build connections, and is poised be able to report on the new and deepening connections we made in 2018 and 2019.

Exhibitions

The Museum offers unique, welcoming and engaging places to explore our diverse and dynamic community.

Community Outreach

The Museum offers an array of new and existing programs to educate and engage our community.

Finance

Events and fundraisers are memorable occasions for connections to be solidified over food, beverages and conversation.

Sharing Knowledge

We are committed to connecting the diverse Coalition of the same organizations that help transform our city, where we initiated the Museum’s Board in 2019. This blueprint helps us see how we can continue to build on our strengths and connect more deeply with our community, with a major focus on expanding our outreach and enhancing our ability to tell the Los Altos story. Our new Vision Statement captures our ambition: “To be the premier local institution of inter-cultural and inter-generational connections.”

Finances

Events and fundraisers are memorable occasions for connections to be solidified over food, beverages and conversation.

Community Connections

The Los Altos History Museum provides a variety of new and existing programs to educate and engage our community.

Fine Ar

The Museum offers unique, welcoming and engaging places to explore our diverse and dynamic community.

Financials

Events and fundraisers are memorable occasions for connections to be solidified over food, beverages and conversation.

The Future

Provider to connect the diverse Coalition of the same organizations that help transform our city, where we initiated the Museum’s Board in 2019. This blueprint helps us see how we can continue to build on our strengths and connect more deeply with our community, with a major focus on expanding our outreach and enhancing our ability to tell the Los Altos story. Our new Vision Statement captures our ambition: “To be the premier local institution of inter-cultural and inter-generational connections.”

Shoemaker

Anne and Duane Roberts

Jane and John Reed

Antje and Paul Newhagen

Jerre Hitz

Pat and Gary Hedden

Nan and Chuck Geschke

Kris and Brent Beagle

Dennis Young

Marcia and Ted Adams

Lois and Bob Adams

Margaret Abe

Adam and Julianne Evans

Peter and Judith Wolken

Emily Thurber

Carla Stevenson

Ginni Smith

Irene and Richard Sasaki

Pilar Parducci

Jane Packard

Charles and Kim Pack

Cindy and Ronald Olander

Kathy and Angelo Orciuoli

Barbara and Jean Mordo

Julia and Jim Lovin

Caroline and Peter Landsbergen

Carol Kuiper

Armond and Marjorie King

Keith Kappmeyer

Rory and Dan Kaplan

Rory Kaplan

2018-2019 saw the realization of our ideal summer, book-ended by two fundraising events.

The Los Altos History Museum is located in the heart of our community, where strangers become neighbors. Museums serve the community by connecting to their loved ones.

People enjoy feeling connected to their loved ones, to their friends and neighbors, and to where they live. Museums save the community by providing a place where those connections can flourish, where families spend quality time together, where volunteers work together, and where strangers become neighbors. The Los Altos History Museum works to help build connections, and is poised be able to report on the new and deepening connections we made in 2018 and 2019.

Annual Report 2018-2019

Annual Report 2018-2019

Community Connections

The Los Altos History Museum provides a variety of new and existing programs to educate and engage our community.

Exhibitions

The Museum offers unique, welcoming and engaging places to explore our diverse and dynamic community.

Community Outreach

The Museum offers an array of new and existing programs to educate and engage our community.

Finance

Events and fundraisers are memorable occasions for connections to be solidified over food, beverages and conversation.

Sharing Knowledge

We are committed to connecting the diverse Coalition of the same organizations that help transform our city, where we initiated the Museum’s Board in 2019. This blueprint helps us see how we can continue to build on our strengths and connect more deeply with our community, with a major focus on expanding our outreach and enhancing our ability to tell the Los Altos story. Our new Vision Statement captures our ambition: “To be the premier local institution of inter-cultural and inter-generational connections.”
We made in 2018 and 2019.

Proud to be able to build connections, and report on the new and deepening connections made, where families spend quality time providing a place where those connections are they live. Museums serve the community by connected to their loved works.

Artistry through the Years, offered us the chance to work with, and planned future projects in the garden! An exhibition in the Smith House, programs in the Main Gallery, the Museum to celebrate their 90th anniversary in 2019, with Club members. The Garden Club of Los Altos partnered with museum’s first bilingual exhibition, and provided an opportunity 2018-2019, Inspired by Juana: La Doña de la Frontera, was the connection are so important. Our primary exhibition in topics. In a hectic world, these moments of converse with one another and with our docents about.

The subsequent exhibition, April in Bloom: Celebrating Floral exhibition, which was on display for six months. The Museum offers visitors a welcoming and engaging place to reach out in many directions. High-school students throughout the area, from San Jose to San Mateo, explored how to create compelling accompanying programs brought to diverse communities, both in-person and virtually. Teachers and families held indoor story telling, Three Kings Day.

The subsequent exhibitions were supplied students and the Garden Club of Los Altos. In fact, the Garden Club presented the Museum to celebrate their 90th anniversary in 2019, as an exhibit in the Smith House, program in the Main Gallery, and presented special projects in the garden.

When we know more about our past, we understand it better, and feel more connected to it and to the people who have lived in the

SHARING KNOWLEDGE

If you would like to learn more about our past, we understand it better, and feel more connected to it and to the people who have lived in the

FINANCES

The Museum offers visitors a welcoming and engaging place to reach out in many directions. High-school students throughout the area, from San Jose to San Mateo, explored how to create compelling accompanying programs brought to diverse communities, both in-person and virtually. Teachers and families held indoor story telling, Three Kings Day.

The subsequent exhibitions were supplied students and the Garden Club of Los Altos. In fact, the Garden Club presented the Museum to celebrate their 90th anniversary in 2019, as an exhibit in the Smith House, program in the Main Gallery, and presented special projects in the garden.

Thanks to our donors!

Provider to connect the diverse kinds of the Museum's work, the program that help support when we need most. The Museum Board focused on Strategic plan in March of 2019.

The Museum offers visitors a welcoming and engaging place to reach out in many directions. High-school students throughout the area, from San Jose to San Mateo, explored how to create compelling accompanying programs brought to diverse communities, both in-person and virtually. Teachers and families held indoor story telling, Three Kings Day.

The subsequent exhibitions were supplied students and the Garden Club of Los Altos. In fact, the Garden Club presented the Museum to celebrate their 90th anniversary in 2019, as an exhibit in the Smith House, program in the Main Gallery, and presented special projects in the garden.

Thanks to our donors!

Apple, Inc.
Adobe Systems, Inc.
23andMe, Inc.
The Abigail Company
The Geschke Foundation
Alain Pinel Realtors
Apple, Inc.
The Abigail Company
The Geschke Foundation
Alain Pinel Realtors
BUILDING CONNECTIONS

People enjoy feeling connected to their loved ones, to their friends and neighbors, and to where they live. Museums save the community by providing a place where those connections can be made, where families spend quality time together, where volunteers work together, and where strangers become neighbors. The Los Altos History Museum works to help build connections, and is proud to be able to report on the new and deepening connections we made in 2018 and 2019.

COMMUNITY OUTREACH

The Los Altos History Museum passed a new Strategic Plan in March of 2019. This blueprint helps us see how we can continue to build on our strengths and connect more deeply with our community, with a major focus on expanding our outreach and enhancing our ability to tell the Los Altos story. Our new Vision Statement captures our ambition: “To be the premier local institution of inter-cultural and inter-generational connections.”

INCOME

FINANCES

Events and furnishings are generous occasions for connections to beSolidified over food, beverages and conversations between strangers and friends. In 2018, the Los Altos History Museum initiated an annual auction of art works

The Los Altos History Museum provided a meaningful experience for our 10,000 visitors of all ages, including the annual Museum Family Day.

The Los Altos History Museum provided a meaningful experience for our 10,000 visitors of all ages, including the annual Museum Family Day.

The Los Altos History Museum provided a meaningful experience for our 10,000 visitors of all ages, including the annual Museum Family Day.

The Los Altos History Museum provided a meaningful experience for our 10,000 visitors of all ages, including the annual Museum Family Day.

The Los Altos History Museum provided a meaningful experience for our 10,000 visitors of all ages, including the annual Museum Family Day.

The Los Altos History Museum provided a meaningful experience for our 10,000 visitors of all ages, including the annual Museum Family Day.

The Los Altos History Museum provided a meaningful experience for our 10,000 visitors of all ages, including the annual Museum Family Day.

The Los Altos History Museum provided a meaningful experience for our 10,000 visitors of all ages, including the annual Museum Family Day.

The Los Altos History Museum provided a meaningful experience for our 10,000 visitors of all ages, including the annual Museum Family Day.

The Los Altos History Museum provided a meaningful experience for our 10,000 visitors of all ages, including the annual Museum Family Day.

The Los Altos History Museum provided a meaningful experience for our 10,000 visitors of all ages, including the annual Museum Family Day.

The Los Altos History Museum provided a meaningful experience for our 10,000 visitors of all ages, including the annual Museum Family Day.

The Los Altos History Museum provided a meaningful experience for our 10,000 visitors of all ages, including the annual Museum Family Day.

The Los Altos History Museum provided a meaningful experience for our 10,000 visitors of all ages, including the annual Museum Family Day.

The Los Altos History Museum provided a meaningful experience for our 10,000 visitors of all ages, including the annual Museum Family Day.

The Los Altos History Museum provided a meaningful experience for our 10,000 visitors of all ages, including the annual Museum Family Day.

The Los Altos History Museum provided a meaningful experience for our 10,000 visitors of all ages, including the annual Museum Family Day.

The Los Altos History Museum provided a meaningful experience for our 10,000 visitors of all ages, including the annual Museum Family Day.

The Los Altos History Museum provided a meaningful experience for our 10,000 visitors of all ages, including the annual Museum Family Day.

The Los Altos History Museum provided a meaningful experience for our 10,000 visitors of all ages, including the annual Museum Family Day.

The Los Altos History Museum provided a meaningful experience for our 10,000 visitors of all ages, including the annual Museum Family Day.

The Los Altos History Museum provided a meaningful experience for our 10,000 visitors of all ages, including the annual Museum Family Day.
Building Connections
People enjoy feeling connected to their home town, to their friends and neighbors, and to where they live. Museums serve the community by providing places where those connections can be made, where families spend quality time together, where volunteers work together, and where strangers become neighbors.

The Los Altos History Museum works to help build connections, and is proud to be able to report on the new and deepening connections we made in 2018 and 2019.

In 2018 and 2019, we made building connections, and are proud to be able to report on the new and deepening connections where strangers become neighbors.

Together, where volunteers work together, and made, where families spend quality time where they live. Museums serve the community by enjoying feeling works to help.

Exhibitions
The Museum offers vibrant, engaging and engaging exhibits to share the story of Los Altos and the Valley. Ark of the Covenant: Los Altos' history, the story of the founding of Los Altos by the Quaker settlement. Los Altos History Museum is a nonprofit organization. Embroidering on the family behind our story, and our community's story.

Artists Through the Years, offered us the chance to work with, and planned future projects in the garden! An exhibition in the Smith House, programs in the Main Gallery, the Museum to celebrate their 90th anniversary in 2019, with Club members. The Garden Club of Los Altos partnered with museum's first bilingual exhibition, and provided an opportunity for community outreach.

2018-2019, Inspired by Juana: La Doña de la Frontera, was the connection are so important. Our primary exhibition in

The Museum offers visitors a high-school students throughout the area, from San Jose to Redwood City, participated in creating the Juana Briones exhibition, which was on display for six months. The exhibition, which included a special artifact from the Museum's Collection, was an opportunity for community outreach, and provided an opportunity for community outreach.

The Museum's grounds and courtyard provide a welcoming and engaging place to meet and connect with others about our story. Our Oral History program was reinvigorated last year, with new oral histories completed. The Museum Board passed a new Strategic plan in March of 2019. This blueprint helps us see how we can continue to build on our strengths and connect more deeply with our community, with a new mission statement: "To be the premier local institution of inter-cultural and inter-generational connections."

When we know more about our past, we understand it better, and feel more connected to it and to the people who have lived in the area before us. Our Oral History program was reinvigorated last year, with new oral histories completed. The Museum Board passed a new Strategic plan in March of 2019.

This blueprint helps us see how we can continue to build on our strengths and connect more deeply with our community, with a new mission statement: "To be the premier local institution of inter-cultural and inter-generational connections."

In addition, we fielded over a dozen new oral histories completed: 8

"To be the premier local institution of inter-cultural and inter-generational connections."

Thanks to our donors!

Thanks to our sponsors!

Sharing Knowledge

When we know more about our past, we understand it better, and feel more connected to it and to the people who have lived in the area before us. Our Oral History program was reinvigorated last year, with new oral histories completed. The Museum Board passed a new Strategic plan in March of 2019. This blueprint helps us see how we can continue to build on our strengths and connect more deeply with our community, with a new mission statement: "To be the premier local institution of inter-cultural and inter-generational connections."

In addition, we fielded over a dozen new oral histories completed: 8

"To be the premier local institution of inter-cultural and inter-generational connections."

Thanks to our sponsors!